On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Ipswich Town who have been fellow strugglers this season.

Their resounding 4-0 home victory against Manchester City last weekend indicates that they are on their way up and before today's game they occupied fourth from bottom spot.

Once again things didn't go our way when we visited Wolves last week and once again Neil Whatmore scored our goal.

I must pay tribute to the fans for their support in our last home game against Bristol City. The crowd totalled just over 12,000 but the way they got behind the players as they trailed 1-0 to City was simply fantastic.

And when Roy Greaves got our equaliser in the last minute I can't underestimate the part the crowd played in the goal.

With those fans behind us we'll go on battling until things start to come right.

There is no way I will concede defeat until we have three games to play and we need seven points.

The dressing room spirit is excellent and the players are buckling down well to the task before us.

The injury to Alan Gowling gave me the chance to give a Football League debut to young Mike Carter at Wolves after he came on as sub against Bristol City.

We are looking ahead to a fairly hectic programme over Christmas with the game at Middlesbrough next Friday night followed by a home game against Everton on Boxing Day. Then comes a trip to Southampton the following Saturday with the visit to Manchester United planned for New Year's Day.

Some good results over this period can put us in better shape and in good heart for 1980.

Welcome to IPSWICH TOWN

It's difficult to understand why Ipswich Town are currently in such grave danger of relegation. It's a most unfamiliar plight for a club that has achieved so much progress over the past few years.

Indeed, Ipswich did much to kill the myth that the English First Division should be the monopoly of big city clubs. Though they usually have to exist on attendances of around 20,000, Ipswich have only once in the past seven seasons finished lower than sixth in the League, they won the F.A. Cup in 1978 and this season they were involved in their seventh campaign in Europe.

Much of the credit is due to manager Bobby Robson and an intelligent board who run the club sensibly within its budget, leaving the professional men to run the team.

It seems reasonable to assume that Ipswich will play their way out of their present problems. And, to gauge the club's success, we should disregard recent results as one of those temporary failures that most clubs experience at some time or another.

Over the past few years, Ipswich have produced very nearly a complete team of international players. Mick Mills, Colin Viljoen, Brian Talbot, Kevin Beattie and Trevor Whymark all rose from the Ipswich ranks to win England caps while John Wark and George Burley are currently members of the Scotland squad.

Paul Mariner learned his game elsewhere but it was only after joining Ipswich that he, too, became an England player.

Ipswich Town's most recent finds are the two very young central defenders Russell Osman and Terry Butcher, both now regular members of the England under-21 side.

Butcher, in fact, switched to left-back a few weeks ago to accommodate the fit-again Kevin Beattie but another very experienced international — Northern Ireland's Allan Hunter — has been unable to get back into the side, following injury, because of the consistency of his understudy.

The versatility of Mick Mills is another reason for Ipswich's success over the years.

A constructive, attacking full-back, he usually plays at left-back but for the past few weeks he has been operating in midfield — just as he did last season when the club suffered a number of injuries.

Ipswich have certainly not been left behind, either, in the quest to introduce the best of foreign stars to First Division football. Last season they invested a grand total of £350,000 in those two very talented Dutch international midfield players Arnold Muehren and Frans Thijssen.

By finishing sixth last season, Ipswich earned a place in the UEFA Cup and they came storming through the first round with a magnificent 10-1 aggregate victory over Skeid Oslo. After earning a goalless draw away to Swiss side Grasshoppers, Ipswich looked poised for further progress.

But they disappointed in their home leg and though Kevin Beattie gave them an early lead, they conceded an equaliser twenty minutes from time — and lost on that away goal.

League Cup hopes came to an early end, too, when they were beaten 0-1 on aggregate by Coventry in the second round.

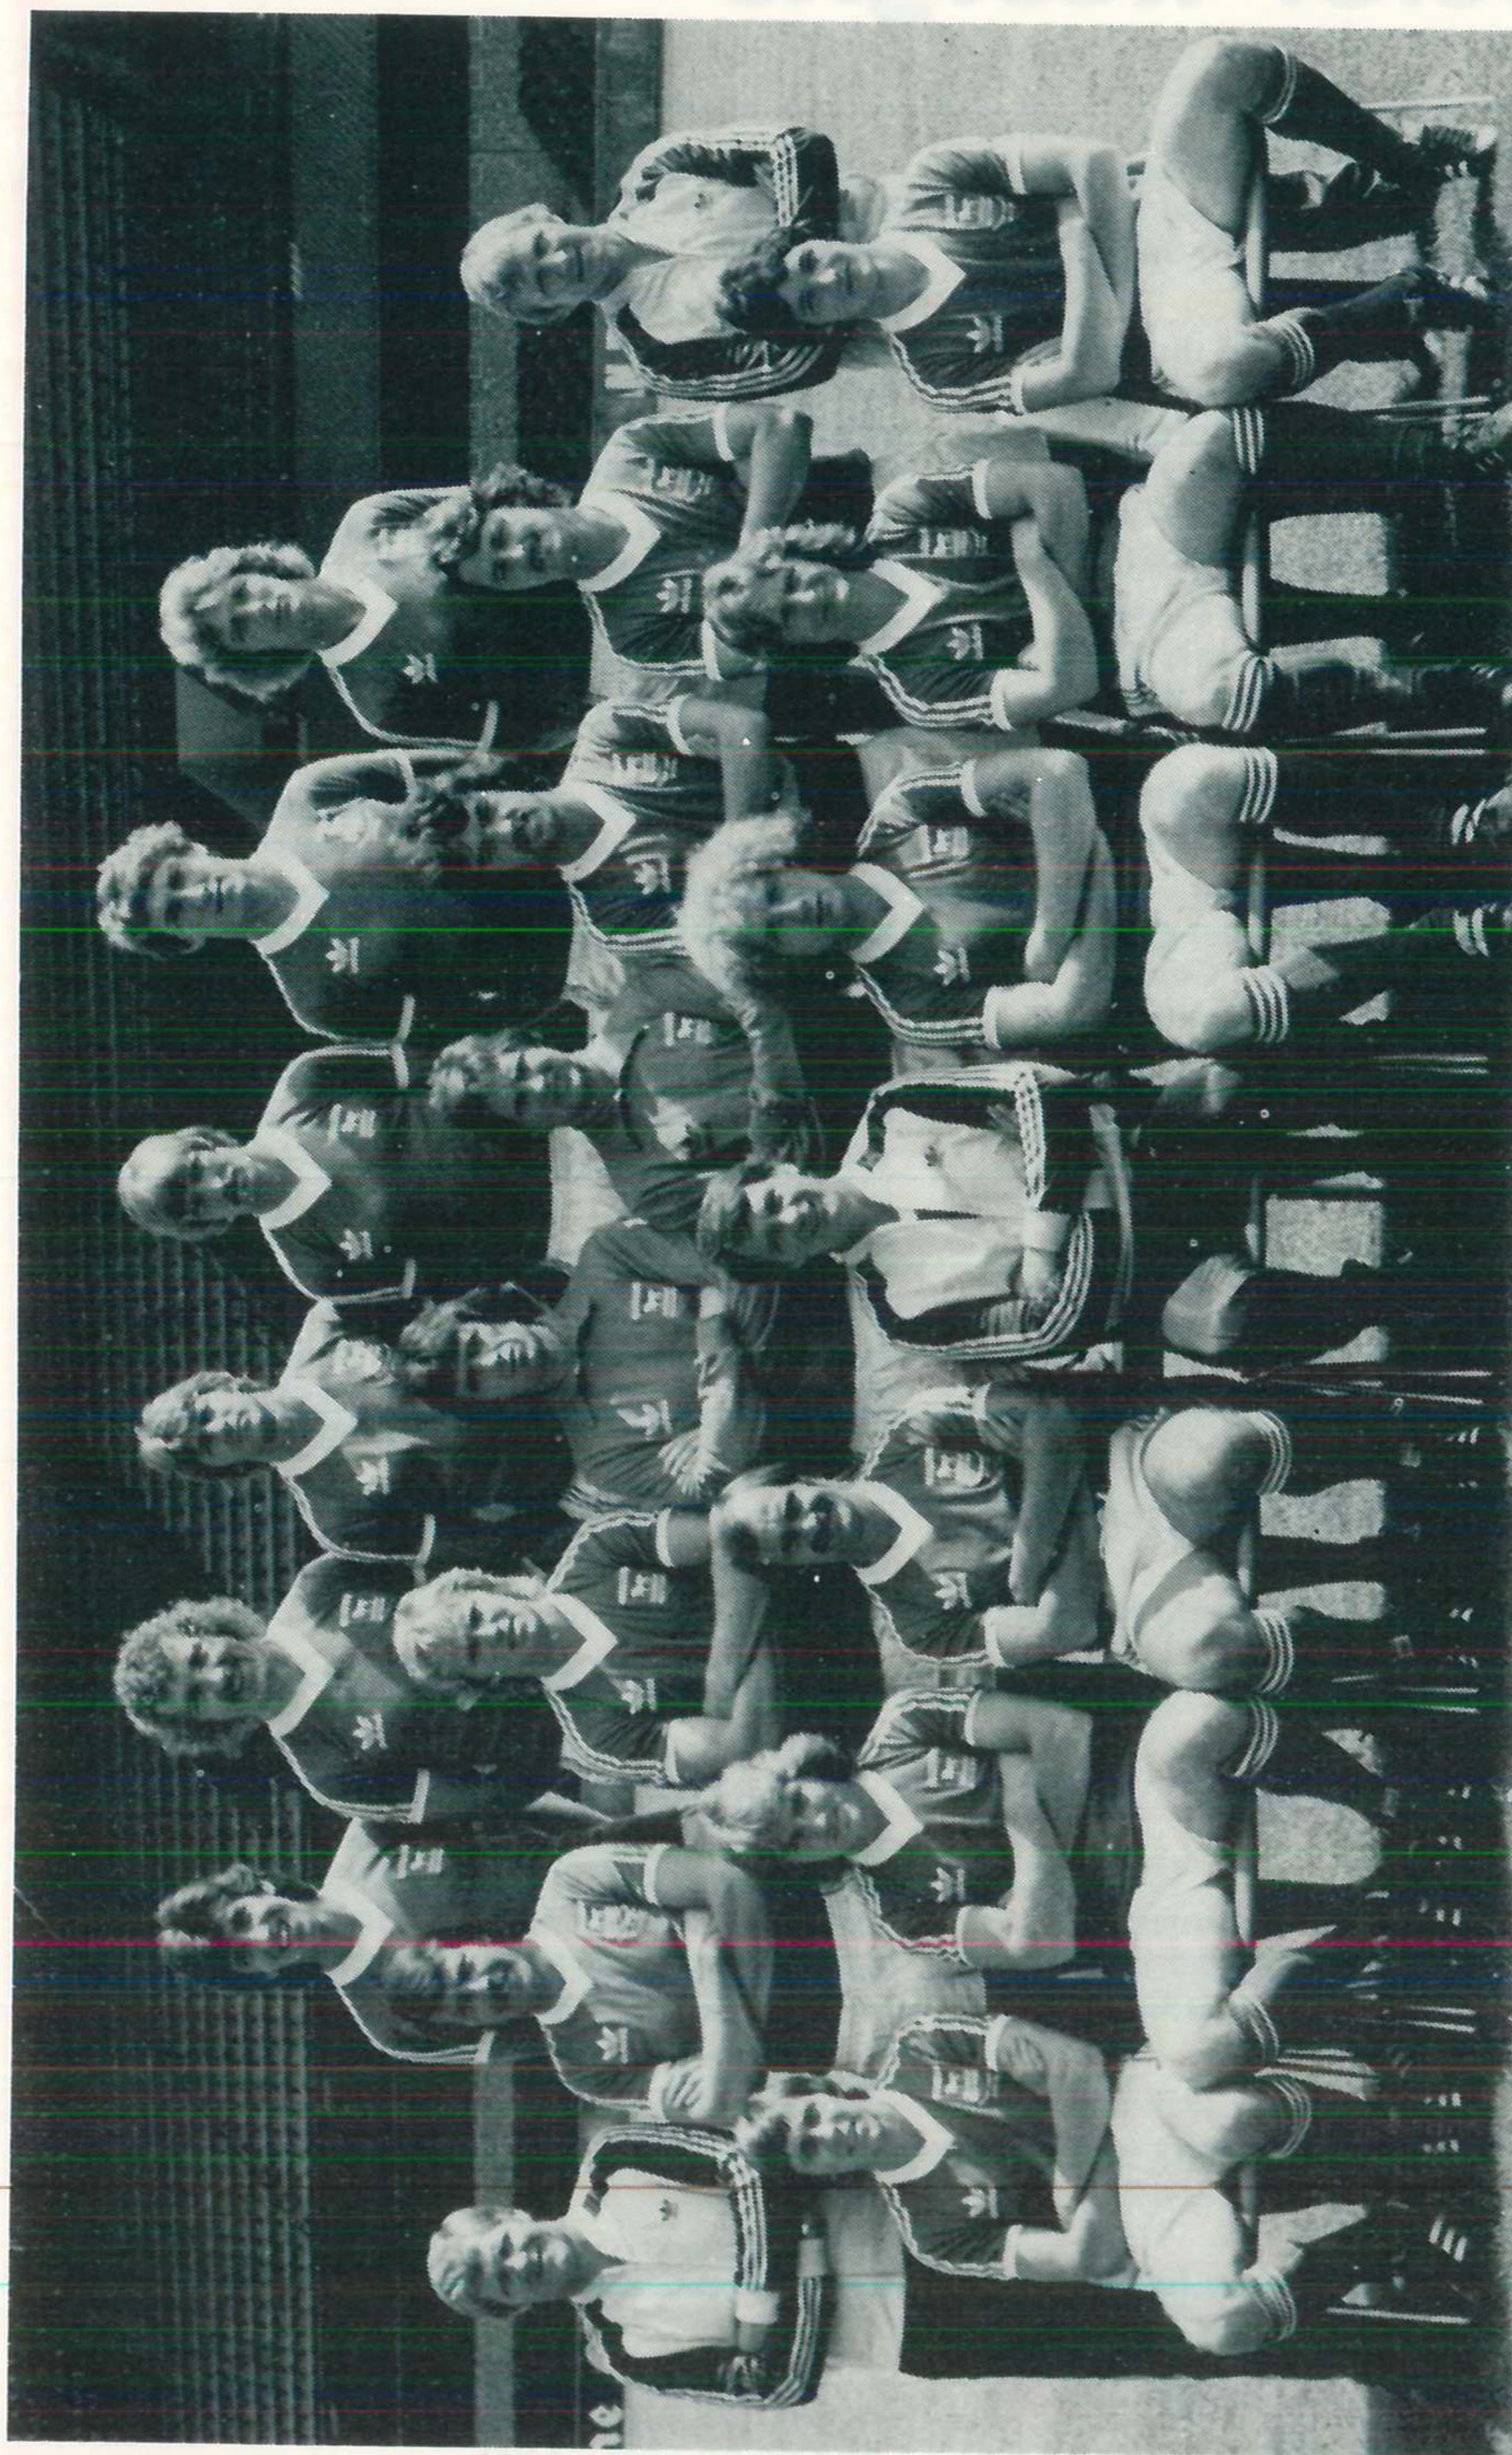

Ipswich have won two away games in the League, at Arsenal (2-0) and Derby (1-0).

All their other away games have been lost — at Wolves (0-3), Brighton (0-2), Crystal Palace (1-4), Leeds (1-2), Manchester United (0-1), Nottingham Forest (0-2) and Coventry (1-4).

Last season Ipswich equalled a club record in European soccer by reaching the quarter-final of the Cup-Winners' Cup and they were decidedly unlucky to lose that one, too, on away goals — to Barcelona. In 1973/74 they survived to the last eight of the UEFA Cup.

Ipswich Town can be rightly proud of their achievements over the past decade. Results, and trophies tell their own story, but it goes a little deeper than that for Ipswich have always made entertainment one of their top priorities.

Though they have been suffering a bit this season, Ipswich will stick to their principles and play themselves back into what we have now come to accept as their rightful place — somewhere among the top six clubs in the country.

Director Resigns

It was with regret and reluctance that the Burnden Park board accepted the resignation of vice-chairman Mr Jack Woods.

Mr Woods left the board of directors on the best of terms and accepted the offer of a Life-presidency of Bolton Wanderers FC. He will continue to support the team as they fight to break out of their present lowly position.

A retired civil engineer, Mr Woods joined the Burnden board in July 1972 and two years later was elected vice-chairman.

He was a tireless worker for the Club, putting his vast experience and expertise in engineering to good use.

He started his career in local government and worked for Turton Council for a number of years before joining the Leonard Fairclough group. Later he worked for the Oldham firm of George Dew Ltd — the firm which has carried out much of the improvement work at Burnden Park.

Mr Woods helped design and supervise the modernisation scheme, which is only partly finished. His work proved of immense value to the club as they modernised the ground partly to comply with the Safety of Sports Grounds Act and to improve general facilities for the spectators.

The programme is only partly finished and Mr. Woods has offered his services to the club in any future work.

YOUTH VICTORY

The Wanderers scored a tremendous 3-1 win over Rotherham United in the second round of the FA Youth Cup tie here at Burnden Park.

It was a superb display of skill and determination by the youngsters who came from behind to book a place in the third round.

Rotherham took a surprise lead in the ninth minute. On the heavy ground, saturated by a long spell of rain, it looked a mountain for the young Wanderers side — made up of schoolboys and apprentices — to climb.

But they gradually clawed their way back into the game and were soon in command.

Wanderers drew level when tall centre half Tony Mallin outjumped the Rotherham defence to power in a superb header, which skidded off the wet surface and beat the unfortunate Rotherham keeper.

Then David Hoggan — a midfield player with a great deal of skill — laid on a goal for Geoff Langley.

Langley got his second after half time and Wanderers went on to score a fine victory.

It was a good all-round team performance by the well-coached Wanderers lads, making up for their early exit from the Lancashire FA Youth Cup earlier in the season.

They created a number of scoring chances and had the misfortune to hit the woodwork three times. Nevertheless they scored the goals that mattered.

EVERTON TICKETS

Tickets are now on sale for seats for the League game here at Burnden against Everton on Boxing Day. The match is not all ticket and supporters can pay at the turnstiles for admission to the paddocks and terraces.

A large demand is expected for seats and to avoid disappointment you are advised to get your tickets as soon as possible.

PAUL COOPER (Goalkeeper) Paul was signed from Birmingham for £30,000 in 1974, after a short loan period, and he has been in the first-team for the past 4½ years. He was once a striker in Shrewsbury reserves but he began his League career as Birmingham's goalkeeper in January 1972.

GEORGE BURLEY (Defender) George made his Ipswich bow in 1973 and has been their right-back ever since. After being picked for the Scottish under-23 and under-21 elevens, he was introduced to the full Scottish team last season when he won five caps.

RUSSELL OSMAN (Defender) Russell graduated to first-team duty two seasons ago when Ipswich were hit by a whirlwind of injuries. But he performed so well that he has held his place and he has already played for England's under-21 side.

KEVIN BEATTIE (Defender) The past 12 months have been a nightmare for Kevin who has suffered one injury problem after another. It all started to happen after he had established himself in the England team with nine caps. He had earlier played for the England youth and under-23 teams.

TERRY BUTCHER (Defender) Injuries precipitated Terry into premature first-team duty two seasons back but he learned rapidly and now he is a regular member of the England under-21 side. He can play either at centre or left-back.

ALLAN HUNTER (Defender) Though Allan has played in both of Northern Ireland's internationals this season, and now has 53 caps, he has been unable to win back his Ipswich place following injury. He left Coleraine to sign for Oldham in 1966 but three years later he was transferred to Blackburn for £18,000. In 1971 he moved on to Ipswich for £90,000.

MICK MILLS (Defender/Midfield) Mick has been playing in midfield just lately though we have become accustomed to seeing him for club and country at left-back. Mick was once discarded by Portsmouth but Ipswich gave him a second chance and he is now fast approaching his 500th League appearance for the club. He has 28 full England caps and is still a vital member in England's challenge for the European Championship.

FRANS THIJSSSEN (Midfield) Frans was signed from Dutch club Twente Enschede for £200,000 last February. A Dutch international, he quickly made himself at home in his midfield role at Portman Road.

ERIC GATES (Forward) Eric is a former apprentice who made his initial first-team appearances in 1973/74. He has been a fairly constant member of the side for the past two seasons, and hit a hat-trick against Manchester City last weekend.

ALAN BRAZIL (Forward) Alan is one of the club's leading scorers with four goals. He was first introduced to the side for a couple of substitute appearances in 1977/78 and last season he scored 11 goals in only a couple of dozen games.

MICK D'AVRAY (Forward) Mick was born in Johannesburg and has been developing in the reserve teams. He was given his first taste of League soccer when coming on as substitute against Southampton last month and was then picked to play the whole of the next game.

JOHN WARK (Midfield) John served his apprenticeship with Ipswich and initially came into the side as a central defender in 1974/75. But he has switched most effectively to midfield and is now a Scottish international in that position with eight caps.

ARNOLD MUEHREN (Midfield) Arnold was another signing from Twente Enschede, the fee being £150,000 when he arrived in August 1978.

PAUL MARINER (Forward) Paul has been Ipswich's top scorer for the past two seasons with 17 goals last term and 19 the previous year. He began his career with Plymouth and was their leading marksmen in two of his first three seasons in the side. Ipswich paid £220,000 for him in 1976 and it wasn't long before he won the first of his five England caps.

CLIVE WOODS (Forward) Clive, who made his entry into League soccer in 1969/70, has developed into a fast and talented winger, notable for his precision passing. He has now played almost 300 first-team games for the club.

Wanderers - a unique record

Hidden Treasure

After the tremendous success of our Christmas Cash Cracker lottery you now have the chance to find gold on our Treasure Island.

Treasure Island instant lottery tickets are now on sale from our agents with the same big cash prizes as the Cracker ticket.

Join our hundreds of winners, dig for gold and uncover the £1,000 top prize on Treasure Island.

Swinging Party Time

Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve are the two most popular party nights of the year. Where better to spend them than among supporters of Bolton Wanderers?

The Supporters Club have organised a cabaret and disco for each of these nights and tickets are now on sale.

Priced at £1.50 for Christmas Eve and £2.00 for New Year's Eve, the festivities start at 8.00 p.m. with raffles, novelties, refreshments, dancing and star entertainment. Everything in fact to make your party night go with a swing.

Make sure you're there by getting your ticket NOW. They're available from the Executive Club.

Gift Problem Solved

The Wanderers have introduced a scheme which could solve that last minute Christmas gift problem for the soccer fanatic in your family.

It is now possible to buy a block of tickets for all our remaining home games which will guarantee you the same seat at every match. Just imagine, no more queuing for tickets for the big game, no standing out in bad weather and your favourite seat guaranteed.

And look at the attractive fixtures still to be played at Burnden Park. Manchester United, Everton, Spurs, Nottingham Forest, Wolves and Norwich have all still to visit Bolton.

Enquire now at the ticket office — Bolton 21101 — about block bookings and put that last-minute gift problem out of your mind.

Big Nights Out

The New Year gets off to a great start in the Executive Club with a Ladies Evening on January 3rd. Tickets cost just £5 and entertainment will be provided by that very popular folk group The Houghton Weavers.

January 21st is the date of the next in our series of popular Sportsmen's Dinners. Guest speakers will be Alan Hardaker O.B.E. and Manchester City Chairman, Peter Swales.

Also in attendance will be that great fullback pairing of Roy Hartle and Tommy Banks. While cabaret entertainment is in the hands of comedian Venn Tracey.

The Sportsmen's Dinners are a fabulous night out and tickets (£10) are always in great demand.

Future Dinners are planned for March 17th and April 28th and among the speakers already booked are Canon Smith, Jimmy Adamson and Tom Finney.

Junior Whites News

Each month there is a lucky number for the Junior Whites and the one for November is 265. Will the holder of the number please ring Margaret on 29433 to hear details of the prize.

Tours of Burnden Park are being arranged for the Christmas Holidays. These are free but Junior Whites wishing to take part must book through Margaret.

There is still quite a lot of membership cards to be collected from the club and this should be done as soon as possible.

United Tickets

Standing tickets for the Wanderers' game against Manchester United at Old Trafford on January 1st are on sale at the Burden Ticket Office after today's game and during normal office hours priced £1.20 each.

First Division Focus

Ipswich Town or, more correctly, Eric Gates hit top form last Saturday to overwhelm struggling Manchester City at Portman Road. Gates scored three goals himself and made the other in a 4-0 victory.

It was only the second time in over 100 League games for Ipswich that this tiny little striker had managed to score more than once in a game. His previous best was a two-goal hit in a 4-0 victory at Q.P.R. on the closing day of last season.

Last week's performance must finally have convinced manager Bobby Robson that Gates is now fully warranting a regular place in the side. After being in and out of the Ipswich side last season, a frustrated Gates demanded a transfer. But, after playing his way back again, he came off the list. Eric's final goal against City was his 20th in competitive football for Ipswich.

After the Ipswich experience, Maine Road fans have been asking themselves if City's revival is now over. Or, indeed, if their flush of success in September and October, was a fluke.

Apart from a commendable goalless draw at Arsenal and a narrow 1-0 victory over Nottingham Forest which, perhaps, can now be put more in perspective? City didn't meet any of the top sides, though. And, when they faced Liverpool at Maine Road, they were crushed 4-0. City's failure at Ipswich was their third defeat in a row.

Crystal Palace put on a five-star show against ailing Nottingham Forest and deserved to win by a far larger margin than 1-0. Though Forest's goalkeeper Peter Shilton was badly at fault for the goal, allowing a soft shot to dribble through his fingers, he more than atoned for that error.

Shilton pulled off exciting, world class saves to shots from Peter Nicholas and Jerry Murphy and was constantly in action as the stylish Palace side attacked them. On one occasion he was beaten by Ian Walsh but Kenny Burns managed to sprint across and clear as the ball was entering an empty net.

Palace's young side gave a performance of such style and maturity to suggest that within the next couple of years they will be the equal of Liverpool and other top clubs. Indeed, against Forest they played better than Forest themselves did in winning the European Cup last season. Maybe that's one trophy that will soon be seen in the boardroom at Selhurst Park ?

A goal by Steve Williams gave Southampton a commendable 1-0 win at Middlesbrough. Then skipper Alan Ball dropped his bombshell, stating that he wants to leave the Saints before planned.

"My contract runs until the end of the season," explained the former England player. "But I've asked Lawrie McMenemy if I can go now."

Ball has no quarrel with the club. But a section of the crowd has been getting at him at every home game, taking much of the joy out of his game. "If my request is refused I shall continue to give the club everything I've got on the field. But it doesn't help much to have a section of loudmouths going on all the time."

Manchester United's largest crowd (57,470) of the season were subjected to a most unusual experience last Saturday. When the young Leeds' forward Terry Connor gave the visitors the lead in the 22nd minute, it was only the second time this season that Old Trafford fans had seen their heroes in arrears.

The last time was when Crystal Palace held a 1-0 advantage in November and it wasn't until the last minute that Joe Jordan hit the equaliser. Things seemed to be going the same way after Leeds' goalkeeper John Lukic had pulled off a splendid save to Ashley Grimes' penalty-kick.

Mickey Thomas eventually scored the equaliser with a finely angled shot and, though United dropped their second home point of the season, they were quite happy that at least their unbeaten home record still stands.

Though Leeds have won only one away game, their 1-1 draw at Old Trafford was their sixth away League draw of the season.
